

CHAPTER 7: ELECTRICITY

Extra Info

National Grid Network

In Malaysia, the National Grid is the national electricity transmission network linking more than 15 main power stations to more than 420 substations and consumers.

The power transmission lines are operating at 132 kV and 500 kV.

The Malaysia National Grid network is also interconnected to the transmission network of Thailand and Singapore.