Question 1

Rahman's father had just bought him a new bicycle. Rahman was excited and was very eager to learn to cycle. However, he did not know how to ride a bicycle.

Rahman's older brother, Ibrahim, felt sorry for him. He volunteered to teach Rahman. Rahman was very grateful to his brother. Every evening, Rahman and his brother would go to the park near their house. Ibrahim would teach Rahman how to cycle.

At first, Rahman found it difficult to balance himself on the bicycle. However, with lots of practice and encouragement from his brother, he managed to cycle well. Since then, Rahman and his brother would cycle in their neighbourhood every day.

Question 2

Yesterday, Alice celebrated her birthday. She invited all her friends to her birthday party.

The party started at six in the evening. Her guests brought many presents for her. Alice's father bought a big chocolate cheesecake for her. She was very excited because that was her favourite cake. There were twelve candles on her cake and her mother lit them all. Then, everyone sang 'Happy Birthday'. Alice made a wish before blowing out the candles.

Alice's mother prepared delicious food and drinks. She had made fried noodles, fried chicken, pizzas, jelly, and fruit juice. After eating, everyone played games. Alice was very happy because all her friends came to her party. She thanked her parents for organising the party.

B(ii) Dear Mum,

My school is organising 'Environment Week' in two weeks' time. It will start on 9 May. Many interesting activities will be carried out during that week. There will be quizzes, contests, a school clean-up, and a talk about saving the environment. The school will also set up a recycling booth at the school hall. There are old newspapers and magazines lying around our house, so I would like to bring them to school. Will you help me collect them?

Your son,

Ravi

Section C

Question 1

Mr. Kamesh works as a show presenter at a bird park. First, he introduces the types of birds in the show. After that, he asks a volunteer to stand with one arm outstretched. The birds fly from Mr. Kamesh's hand to the volunteer's arm and back again.

Then, Mr. Kamesh invites two other volunteers to hold hoops. There is a parrot sitting on each of Mr. Kamesh's hand. At his command, the birds take turns to fly through each hoop and sit on Mr. Kamesh's hands again.

Finally, Mr. Kamesh asks another pair of volunteers to feed the birds. He gives each of them some seeds to hold in their palms. The two birds fly and sit on the volunteers' hands. Then, they eat up all the seeds.

Question 2

Jason and his mother were waiting at the bus stop. A bus arrived and a woman got off. She stood near Jason. She looked worried as she kept looking around for something. Jason asked her if she needed any help.

The woman then realised that she had left her purse in the bus. The bus was about to leave so Jason quickly called out to the bus driver. When he did not stop, Jason's mother called out to him too.

The bus driver finally stopped and the woman boarded the bus. She talked to the bus driver and then, looked for her purse. A few minutes later, she got off the bus. She had a big smile on her face.
